Extra Credit Opportunity #1, Eco Latino Hispanic Art Walk

- You may do this assignment either by yourself or with any number of my students in any period up to three other people. (If you are in 1A, you can go to the art walk with up to three people in my 2A, 3A, 6B, 7B, or 8B classes in any combination.)
- Eco Latino Hispanic Art Walk?
 - What: An event that celebrates Hispanic Heritage
 - When: Saturday, Oct. 24, 4:00 to midnight
 - Who: Eco Latino is sponsoring this Art Walk.
 - Where: Jacksonville Landing
 - Why: For extra credit, but more importantly, for cultural awareness!
- To receive your extra credit points (up to 100), you must submit the following:
 - Three pages of a Word Document file that includes: one photo each that showcases your experience in the artwalk.
 - The photos must have you (and your group, if any) in it so I know you actually went there!
 - Under each photo you must write a paragraph about it. Spanish I will write in English, while Spanish II will write in Spanish. It must include a description of the photo, your experiences about the subject, and something new that you learned about the people/objects in the photo.
 - Please see reverse for an example of what your pages should look like.
 - You may print and submit hardcopies, or you may e-mail me your Word Documents as attachments with the subject ECO #1, LAST NAME(S).

In this picture I am dancing with a traditional Bolivian dancer. She is wearing traditional Bolivian clothes. I have learned that the indigenous population in Bolivia still has a strong number and that the dances are traditional. It was fun and I also learned a few dance moves!
