Extra Credit Opportunity #4, World of Nations

- You may do this assignment either by yourself or with any number of my students in any period up to three other people. (If you are in 1A, you can go to World of Nations with up to three people in my 2A, 3A, 6B, 7B, or 8B classes in any combination.)
- World of Nations?
 - What: An event that celebrates the countries of the world
 - When: Saturday–Sunday, February 29–March 1, 2020
 - Who: Everyone is invited!
 - Where: Metropolitan Park
 - Why: For extra credit, but more importantly, for cultural awareness!
- To receive your extra credit points (up to 100), you must submit the following:
 - The passport that you received at the gate, stamped with at least six Spanish-speaking countries.
 - Three pages of a Word Document file that includes: one photo each that showcases your experience at WoN.
 - The photos must have you (your group, if any) in it so I know you actually went there! They must follow these criteria:
 - Photo #1 must include an artifact or an object.
 - Photo #2 must include a food item.
 - Photo #3 must include the displayed name of a Spanish-speaking country's booth.
 - Under each photo you must write a paragraph about it. Spanish I will write in English, while Spanish II will write in Spanish. It must include a description of the photo, your experiences about the subject, and something new that you learned about the people/objects in the photo.
 - You may print and submit hardcopies, or you may e-mail me your Word Documents as attachments with the subject ECO #3, LAST NAME(S).

In this picture I am dancing with a traditional Guatemalan dancer. She is wearing traditional Guatemalan clothes, called a huipil. I have learned that the indigenous population in Guatemala still has a strong number and that the dances are traditionally danced during feasts and celebrations. It was fun and I also learned a few dance moves!
