

SANDALWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

Sr. ALFONSO

Español I y II – el 3 de marzo de 2020

Nombre: _____ Hora: 1 2 3 6 7 8

Movie #2, Living on One Dollar

Living on One Dollar documents the experience of four American friends who travel to Guatemala and set out to live on one dollar a day for two months in rural Guatemala, and those who give them hope and inspiration along the way. Directors Zach Ingrasci, Sean Leonard, and Chris Temple weave through narratives of destitution, hunger, parasites, extreme financial distress, and survival to illustrate an unimaginable reality that plagues over 1.1 billion people around the world.

A. Answer the following questions while watching this documentary about Guatemala.

1. Name the two friends and their cities of origin.

2. Name the two filmmakers who will chronicle this documentary.

3. Name the village in which our four friends are going to live for two months.

4. What is the population of this village?

5. What did they attempt to do on the first day?

6. What ethnicity are the majority of the population in his rural village?

7. What language do they speak?

8. Approximately how many quetzales is $9?

9. From where did the friends obtain their capital in order to start their own business and have a place to live in?

10. Describe the water-gathering process:

11. On Day 5, they go to the market. What did they buy, and for how much (each)?

12. Describe the problems caused by poor nutrition, both for Zach and Victor Coj's little girls.

13. Describe what happens on Day 15.

14. Describe Chino's family and living situation. What difficulties does his family face?

15. Describe Antonio and Rosa's family and living situation.

16. List some things that Antonio's family ends up teaching the friends in order to maximize their resources and money.

17. Describe Rosa Coj Bocel's childhood and the choices she had to make, and the dreams she continues to have.

18. Describe what Antonio did for Chino's family. Talk about his motivations for helping.

19. Describe the difficulties in obtaining a loan from a traditional bank.

20. Compare them with the ease of obtaining a loan from a Grameen bank.

21. Describe the atmosphere during the night of the Pulic'k dinner.

22. Write a reflection summary about this documentary, talking about things you have discovered about poverty and if it had a profound effect on your own life.
