

SANDALWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

Sr. ALFONSO

Español I – el 15 de noviembre de 2019

Nombre: _____ Fecha: _____ Hora: 7 8

PowerPoint Notes #II, Making Comparisons and Superlatives

1. When two nouns have an equal quality, we can compare them using:

2. What is the formula in making equal comparisons?

_____ + _____ + _____ + _____ + _____ + _____

3. Translate to English:

a. Yo estoy tan cansado como tú.

b. El abuelo es tan atlético como el nieto.

4. Write the three rules regarding equal comparisons:

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

5. Translate to Spanish:

a. Pedro is as sad as Luis.

b. My parents are as happy as I.

c. You are as impatient as your cousin.

d. We (girls) are as nervous as them.

6. When two nouns have an unequal quality, we can compare them using:

7. What is the formula in making unequal comparisons?

_____ + _____ + _____ + _____ + _____ + _____

8. Translate to English:

a. Tú eres más estudioso que Carlos.

b. Los papás están menos confundidos que los hijos.

9. Write the three rules regarding unequal comparisons:

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

10. Translate to Spanish:

a. Diego is more frustrated than Alberto.

b. We are more surprised than them.

c. The teacher is less generous than the student.

d. They (girls) are less confused than the boys.

11. Let's practice!

a. I am more tired than you.

b. She is less nervous than he.

c. We are as frustrated as they.

d. He is sadder than you.

e. Y'all are less calm than we.

f. Ethan is more confused than me.

g. You are as in love as she.

h. Y'all are as surprised as we.

i. The girl is calmer than the boy.

j. I am as confused as them.

12. Superlatives are used _____

13. What is the closest translation of the superlative in English? _____

14. How do you form the Superlative?

15. Examples: a. contento _____

b. popular _____

c. triste _____

d. sorprendido _____

16. Say that these people are very, very, very happy!

a. Carlos está _____. c. Ellos están _____.

b. Luisa está _____. d. Estamos _____.